

SCIENCE

- Plan, observe
- How our ethics effect our perspective
- Light
- Isaac Newton (Light spectrum)- Scientist

Music

- Focus, observation, express views
- What influences our perspective?
- To listen and appraise different musical genres

MATHS

- Persevere in finding solutions; represent work efficiently
- How attitudes are formed through the perspective of others
- Explaining findings and sharing methods
- Represent 3D shapes in different orientations
- Escher- Mathematician

P.S.H.E.

- Reflection, consider others' points of views, debate
- Looking at events and situations from new perspectives
- Understanding ourselves
- Friendship
- Stereotypes
- Democracy and government
- Social, cultural and collective perspectives on moral issues
- Social media and advertising
- Expressing opinions sensitively
- What type of adult will you be?

ENGLISH

- Infer, debate, formulate questions and enquire
- Expressing perspectives (others and our own)
- Drama- Role play in character
- Persuasion
- Voices in the Park, Wonder-Class texts
- Evaluating work

R.E.

- To ask questions; to imagine and speculate; develop sense of community
- Value and appreciation of different religious perspectives
- Answering life's big questions
- Comparing religious beliefs
- Eternity

HISTORY

- Ask questions, use sources for evidence, debate
- Is there more than one perspective?
- How our perspective can be manipulated.
- Pose historical questions
- Primary, secondary sources and bias

Perspective

CENTRAL ENQUIRY

Is there one right view?

D.T.

- Design, deconstruct
- Take account of different perspectives during the planning process
- Cooking
- Cross-sections and exploded diagrams
- Palm oil debate

ART

- Sequences and structure, develop own ideas
- Representing images from different perspectives and in different ways
- What influences my perspective?
- What is art? (eg graffiti)
- Portraits
- Technical drawing

I.C.T.

- Editing, manipulating
- Viewing images from different perspectives
- Pop art
- E-safety: reporting unacceptable behaviour

GEOGRAPHY

- Compare and contrast, evaluate
- What is my view of the world?
- Comparing perspectives
- Climate, biomes, physical and human features of South America
- Land use and transport links of SA.
- Alexander Von Humboldt- Geographer